March 26, 2013...9-2...Charity Sew-in and Recycle Program

Our donation bins need to be filled, so join us to make bears, bibs, pillow pals and lap quilts. Bring your lunch and beverage. For more information see pages 4 and 7. Don't forget the recycle party! Bring items for the silent auction in by 9 AM. Bidding will continue until 1PM. (We can't take credit cards but cash and checks work! :) We have collected some neat "stuff"; books, patterns, batting, fabric, cool notions, carrying totes for cutting mats, projects carriers, quilt frame, etc...Don't miss out!

Sign up for the April workshop, Free Motion Quilting with Kathy Lincoln, will begin this month and is only $20.00. Supply list will be available.

April 23, 2013...Kathy Lincoln—Workshop, 9-12—Free Motion Quilting

This workshop will teach you how to prepare your quilt for quilting no matter what the size of your quilt (sandwiching and basting) and how to approach your quilt design. Using a panel (cheaters cloth) you will practice the techniques involved. Because the panel is inexpensive and there is no piecing to do, it is a perfect practice piece. There are a lot of panels available so we are sure you will find one to work on. There are many areas on a panel that lend themselves to some very intricate design planning and this will allow you to learn and execute these designs. Sounds like fun but educational. It's time to hone your skills. Sign up will be available at the March meeting. If you can't make the meeting but want to sign up for the April workshop, email Kate at kdholdgreve@gmail.com.

Program, 1 PM—Kathy Lincoln—Design Your Own Traditional Block

Kathy will show how you can use public domain blocks to make your own special quilt. With so many resources today—books and computer programs—you have endless choices. What do you choose and how do you execute the design that you have floating around in your head? These are the questions that will be answered by the end of the program.

May 28, 2013...1 PM...Karen Comstock...Trunk show and lecture: "Busting UFO's". Now there is a topic we can all relate to!

Ripples From Our President

Dottie Wilson

IN LIKE A LION OUT LIKE A LAMB (I HOPE!)

Mother Nature sent us a little iffy weather that drove the cancellation of our February meeting.

Just for a refresher on Guild policy for cancellations:

Check the WSLS website: <http://www.wsls.com>. Then click on "Weather"/" Closings and Delays". I apologize to anyone made the trip to Trinity only to discover we were not there.

Thanks to Marsha Wright for agreeing to change dates to teach us wool appliqué, and to Jennifer Jones for taking care of our birthday cake. March will be our birthday celebration day. Bring lunch and all the stuff you've completed or didn't complete for our charity efforts and enjoy a piece of birthday cake. Don't forget our recycle event will be going on during the sew-in.

Coming events in April include our retreat in Charlottesville VA; the "Celebrate Quilting" quilt show by the Star quilters Guild; and Charlottesville Area Quilters Guild Show. For more information about these events please visit our web site <http://www.lakequilters.org>.

Plans are under way for our quilt show in 2014. Thank you to Vicki Seekford and Lori Suon for agreeing to Chair this event again.

We hope you are getting your things ready for the retreat. Be sure to include an extension cord and/or surge suppressor cord with your sewing machine. Next month, we will be emailing everyone with directions and last minute instructions. Reminder: there is a great quilt show in Charlottesville on Saturday and Sunday. We look forward to a great time together!!! Sue, Helen, and Sandra

2013 Rainbow Challenge

Cindy's Rainbow Challenge is just that: a challenge in the purest sense. She is calling us to action, effort, or use of our abilities. Her challenge will require the full use of our energy, abilities, and resources. Our entry forms for December's Holiday Luncheon and Challenge will ask us to explain what was our own personal challenge in making our entry.

For more information from Cindy, please go to our guild web site, www.lakequilters.org and read all about our 2013 Rainbow Challenge. She has issued a challenge to our bees to get involved by helping and encouraging our fellow bee members to meet this challenge.

Guidelines for Workshops

Workshops are special opportunities for a small group of people (usually only 20) to have instruction from a guest teacher. Please follow these guidelines when signing up for a workshop:

- Sign-up will begin at 12:30 at the Guild meeting in the month announced for the workshop sign-up. Only people who have signed-up AND paid can attend the workshop. You are not considered "signed-up" until you pay your money!
- If you are unable to attend the guild meeting at which the sign-up occurs, have a friend sign you up and pay your money. We will NOT be taking phone sign-ups before this time...Please don't ask us to break this rule.
- Once the workshop is filled, a waiting list will be formed. If someone drops out of the class, the next person on the waiting list will be called. Please do not by-pass the waiting list by selling your spot to a friend. It is not fair to those who have been put on the waiting list.
- Once you are on the list, and find you will be unable to attend, you will not get a refund unless someone is found to take your place. Please call Pat Blice(890-6226) or Kate Holdgreve(890-2027) as soon as you know you can't come and the next person on the waiting list will be called. If there is no one on the waiting list, you may then find your own replacement.

Charity Committee Quilt-in March 26 9 a.m.—2 p.m.

We hope you are ready for our annual quilt-in at this month's meeting. We will begin at 9 a.m. and go until 2 p.m. We have lots of bears to stuff, and pillow pals, bibs, and lap quilts to make. Please remember to bring your machine if you signed up. An extension cord might also be helpful. Please bring a needle and neutral thread, small scissors, and any other hand sewing notions you might need. We will be sewing and stuffing this year.

We have enough kits on hand that we don't need to make any this year. Be sure to bring your lunch. You will want to stay for the silent auction and refreshments.

We delivered a number of bears and pillow pals to the Franklin County Hospital, Sheriff's department, CASA (Child Advocacy Center) and the Women's Shelter. We also took the shelter some of those great knit caps and a few small quilts. All the charities were so pleased to get our donations. We will be making quarterly donation trips this year to both Franklin and Bedford counties.

CASA told us that they used some of our bears and quilts at Christmas for some of their clients. The hospital was so glad to see us. They have had so many children recently that they were completely out of bears and pillow pals.

For those of you who have never gone on one of our delivery runs, you are missing out on a very rewarding experience. The people we meet are so grateful for what we bring them, and it is a joy to see how much good all our hard work does.

Don't forget to bring in your paper-pieced flowers from January's paper piecing program. Kate and Pat will be glad to take them and give you more kits to complete. When all of our flowers are put together, we will have a quilt to donate to one of our charities.

Go to page 7 to see the Charity Committee's challenge to each bee. We hope to see you Tuesday at 9 a.m. for a day "stuffed" full of sewing fun and fellowship.

NOTE FROM THE EDITOR

ATTACHMENTS WITH THIS NEWSLETTER:

NONE THIS MONTH

FEATURED BEE

Charity Quilt-in

Our charity committee chairpersons are asking every bee to make at least one lap quilt for Bedford Hospice (for Christmas) and one twin sized quilt this year. Please remember that our foster care and shelter providers need bed sized quilts (especially twins) and pillowcases.

We have given out over 200 pillowcases in the past two years, and our supply is gone. Foster care providers like to have pillowcases to give the children to keep their belongings in, and the shelters need them when they set up living quarters for their clients.

Since the Charity Committee is March's bee, there will be no display by an individual bee this month.

As soon as each bee chooses a month to display, please notify Joyce and Dale, who will then notify the newsletter editor. Your display month will be listed with your bee information on page 8 and a reminder will be published in the newsletter on page 2 with hospitality info.

To join an existing bee, start a new one, or to update your bee information and sign up for a month to display, please contact:

Joyce Disbrow ... gwdlake@verizon.net or 297-7262.

Dale Stellhorn ... dstellhorn@aol.com or 297-1020.

Overheard at The Cherry Pit Quilt Shop in Sevierville, TN on Friday, March 15, 10:30...

Four men were seated in a nook of fabric shelves, out of the main flow of traffic. The Cherry Pit was crowded with shoppers from the Mountain QuiltFest at Pigeon Forge.

Two women, their shopping done, approached two of the men and declared they were ready to go. One gentleman answers, "Well, we're not. We'll be ready when these guys' wives are through. Just take your time looking, don't rush."

The men continued telling their fishing and hunting tales; all had out their pocket knives. They had a merry time, oblivious to the women coming and going around them. Blessed are they who sit and wait....
