Marcia has been a guild member since the early 2000s and has been a wonderful contributor, mentor, and teacher in the guild for the past decade. She has held guild offices and is credited with spearheading Cindy Stachelski's call for a guild charity bee which has been very successful. In August, she will share with us her knowledge of wool, its use in applique and will have a make and take project for us. Everything needed for this project will be provided in a kit for you except for small scissors which you will need to bring.

Ripples From Our President

Dottie Wilson

Summertime Blues, and Reds and Whites

Our bang up celebration of our nation's birth was a great one with lots of help from Mother Nature in the fireworks department. I enjoyed the time spent with family and friends and hope all of you did too.

It's back to work now getting ready for Cindy Stachelski's challenge. She has given us a lot of space to be creative.

And I hope you are working on, or have at least started to think about, what you will have ready for display at "Quilting: A Living Legacy", our quilt show next year. Time gets away from us so quickly and it is good to plan ahead.

Our all day July workshop, "Confetti", with Augusta Cole is around the corner. Hope you have made a head start on your cutting, if you signed up for this great opportunity.

We are still looking for a volunteer (or two) to step into the job of 2nd Vice President for Programs. This your guild, so make sure it goes in the direction you want to see it go.

Dottie

Guidelines for Workshops

Workshops are special opportunities for a small group of people (usually only 20) to have instruction from a guest teacher. Please follow these guidelines when signing up for a workshop:

- Sign-up will begin at 12:30 at the Guild meeting in the month announced for the workshop sign-up. Only people who have signed-up AND paid can attend the workshop. You are not considered "signed-up" until you pay your money!
- If you are unable to attend the guild meeting at which the sign-up occurs, have a friend sign you up and pay your money. We will NOT be taking phone sign-ups before this time...Please don't ask us to break this rule.
- Once the workshop is filled, a waiting list will be formed. If someone drops out of the class, the next person on the waiting list will be called. Please do not by-pass the waiting list by selling your spot to a friend. It is not fair to those who have been put on the waiting list.
- Once you are on the list, and find you will be unable to attend, you will not get a refund unless someone is found to take your place. Please call Pat Blice(890-6226) or Kate Holdgreve(890-2027) as soon as you know you can't come and the next person on the waiting list will be called. If there is no one on the waiting list, you may then find your own replacement.

Charity Committee Report

The following items were collected at our June meeting:

- 35 pillowcases
- 2 twin quilts with pillowcases
- 3 wheelchair bags
- 53 bears
- 3 pillow pals
- 8 tote bags
- 1 chemo hat

Special thanks go to the Piece makers Bee and the Bag Ladies Bee for their large group donations. Also a big thanks to Suzanne McLaughlin and friend Mary for the donation of fifty colorful bears.

We are half way through the year and we are continuing to collect lap quilts to be donated to Bedford Hospice for their "Twelve Days of Christmas" Program. We have committed to give 25 quilts to this very worthwhile program which will definitely brighten the Christmas holidays for its participants.

We are still in need of the following items; pillowcases and twin-sized quilts. If every bee could donate a quilt and every guild member donate a pillowcase, we can probably satisfy the needs of the charities that we support in Franklin and Bedford Counties this year.

If anyone is interested in helping deliver donations, please contact Marnie or Sandra. We have been trying to make deliveries to both counties at least once a quarter, or more often if requested by a specific charity. It is a heart-warming experience to see the joy on the faces of our charity recipients when we come to deliver all the many wonderful items donated by our guild members. Thanks for all your continued support and hard work which makes this all possible.

Betty Reynolds saw some smocking on display in May. She would love to talk to the bee member who does smocking. If you are the smocker among us, please contact Betty at the meeting on July 23, next Tuesday, or use her directory listing for phone or email.

See page 8, Buzzing from the Bees, for changes in our bees or bee display dates. Please note that the Bluewater Bee is no longer meeting.

Several of our Lake Quilters belong to the Peaks and Pieces Guild. Marlyn Curnow, Rosemarie Newcomb, Pat Dungan, and Linda Pote are several who had quilts displayed in the Peaks and Pieces Quilt Show at the Bedford Public Library. You may see these lovely quilts through July 23 during regular library hours.

The Railroad Station is great place to stop for lunch and is just down the street from the library. You can always take home bottles of orange poppy seed salad dressing for your own cooking or to include in gift packages of "Virginia-made" goodies.

Don't forget the simple pleasures of summer: Wash and blot dry white (or red) seedless grapes. Place them on large rimmed baking sheets and freeze. Pour the frozen grapes into freezer bags or cartons. Enjoy on the hot, muggy afternoons.

Check our web site <http://www.lakequilters.org> to see the latest events listed. You would hate to miss your favorite quilt show, so mark your calendar.

Charity Donations

This space is usually reserved for our bee of the month. It seems appropriate to thank bees for large group donations in this place.

Please go to www.lakequilters.org and find the Show and Tell for June. The Piecemakers Bee and Bag Ladies Bee are shown with their donations. Look at those bright, cheerful pillowcases! Suzanne McLaughlin also shows and tells at the June meeting.

Since Karen Comstock's trunk show in May, there seems to be an increase in UFO's that are now making an appearance in our Show and Tell. We ought to thank her for sharing with us several easy ways to remind ourselves that finished is better than perfect. How many of us are prioritizing our UFOs, or are we listing them on strips of paper and drawing one out of a bag. See, we certainly did not sleep through Karen's program.
