"QUILTING: A LIVING LEGACY"—A REVIEW

You know how you anticipate and plan for something for so long and then it's here and gone? Well that's how we feel about the 2014 Quilt Show!

What a great display of beautiful quilts and a wonderful representation of our guild! Over 509 people attended the quilt show (445 paid attendees, 45 unpaid volunteers and 19 children) and I know we had a record number of men present. At last count, 6 men won door prizes! Admission totals were $2,225.00 and over $862.00 was collected from the sale of raffle tickets at the show. Thanks to Hallie Ruedi and her team for selling all those raffle tickets during the show! The grand total for raffle ticket sales will be announced at the April meeting.

Stephanie Schaefer won the Garden Bloom quilt and Nancy Robbins won the Rainbow with A Twist quilt. Both ladies are guild members and purchased and sold lots of tickets so Congratulations Girls!

As cochairs Vicki and I need to say a great big THANK-YOU to the entire quilt show team. As we have said before, all the people who volunteered or were behind the scenes planning and preparing for the quilt show made us look good! Even our President, Sue Palmer dog-sat outside with a pup a couple had brought so they could enjoy the show. Now that's what I call doing "whatever it takes!"

And what a swift take down and return of quilts and structure. I think we have a new record to beat of one hour and 15 minutes! Thank you for a job well done to everyone who participated in the ordered chaos of the important wrap up of the show. Also a huge thank you to Chris Genna, owner of CJ's Coffee & Sandwich Shop on Scruggs Road. Chris donated all the sandwich fixings for our delicious volunteer luncheon. Thank you Chris!

So we look forward to our guild meeting at the end of the month to reveal the Viewer's Choice winners. We spoke with many attendees who were going around the show for the second or third time as they just couldn't decide which quilts were their favorites. So ladies your next assignment is to get those UFO's finished and ready for the next Lake Quilters Guild Show in 2016. It will be here before you know it!

With sincere thanks from—

Vicki Seekford & Lori Suon, Cochairs for 2014

Workshop Guidelines

Workshops are special opportunities for a small group of people (usually only 20) to have instruction from a guest teacher. Please follow these guidelines when signing up for a workshop.

- Sign-up will begin at 12:30 p.m. at the guild meeting in the month announced for the workshop sign-up.
- Only people who have signed-up AND paid can attend the workshop. You are not considered "signed-up" until you pay your money!
- If you are unable to attend the guild meeting at which the sign-up occurs, have a friend sign you up and pay your money. We will NOT be taking phone sign-ups before this time. Please don't ask us to break this rule.
- Once the workshop is filled, a waiting list will be formed. If someone drops out of the class, the next person on the waiting list will be called. Please do not by-pass the waiting list by selling your spot to a friend. It is not fair to those who have been put on the waiting list.
- Once you are on the list, and find you will be unable to attend, you will not get a refund unless someone is found to take your place. Please contact Becky Linkous and Denise Pilversack as soon as you know you can't come and the next person on the waiting list will be called. If there is no one on the waiting list, you may then find your own replacement.

2014 BOM

April's block of the month demonstration is paper piecing for either a place mat or a table runner.

The theme is "Spring's First Blooms." Hope to see you there.

Patches from the President . . .

Susan Palmer

Hello!

What a wonderful quilt show! The quilts get more beautiful every year.

In February, I was so nervous before the show when Sandy Miller showed me her pretty blank volunteer sheets, and they were not filling up . . . all that worry for nothing. On Thursday, April 3, the volunteers were there in force to put up the PVC pipes, curtains and quilts . . . and the take down on Saturday was spectacular . . . in 35 minutes the quilts were down and the room was back to being a church again. There were only two quilts left over and they were returned to the General Store for pickup.

A big thank you for Vickie Seekford and Lori Suon for chairing the quilt show, and for the genius of our Joyces, Joyce Moorman and Joyce Noell, for calculating the space needs of all of the quilts.

And to all the volunteers, thank you for working the show, please give yourselves a big pat on your collective backs. The attendees really appreciated your hard work sewing and displaying your quilts, and sharing your knowledge about the techniques and the guild itself.

A big thank you also to Clara and her kitchen volunteers. Having refreshments is a big draw for the show, and they did a wonderful job, kept their prices the same—and still made a profit to enable them to buy some new equipment for the kitchen. A win win for all of us.

We will have an in-house raffle at the April guild meeting . . . if you are not going to be able to be there, send a bee friend with a few dollars to buy your ticket or tickets. This is for the mystery quilt, done by teacher Cindy Clark, and it will be raffled at the meeting.

See you there,

Sue

2014 GUILD CHALLENGE

We all carry purses and many of us want to make a fashion statement when we do. Some buy Coach bags or Vera Bradley but then soon discover that LOTS of other people have the same or similar bags. As quilters, we KNOW we can make something unique.

The challenge this year is to take a purse that everyone else will have but to make it our own. We will add our special talents and ideas that will make it be hard for anyone to believe that it's the same purse as someone else's. The whole purse takes about a yard of fabric but it's how you use that fabric that will allow you to have a purse that is distinctive, remarkable, one of a kind!!!

Go to the web site ...

The directions are very clear with lots of pictures. Don't let the number of pages scare you. That's what happens when directions are precisely given. Have fun with this.

Think of all the ideas we will get from one another as we see all these bags at the 2014 Christmas luncheon. We are looking forward to what YOU come up with!!

Cindy Stachelski

ATTENTION ALL GUILD MEMBERS

We had such a great QUILT SHOW this year. We want to have a parade of as many of the beautiful quilts as we can get. All members are invited to bring your quilt show entries (traditional and non-traditional quilt projects) to the meeting this Tuesday, 22nd. We will show all of the quilts and announce the winners in each category.

If you had multiple entries, bring all or some of your entries and we will make sure each one is shown. This will be a fun way to celebrate another successful quilt show.
