Susan Palmer

Happy summer to all of you!

My company is putting a dent in my quilt output, but that is what the doldrums of January are for—to catch up.

Geri Grindle called me last week and I can report that she sounds absolutely wonderful and is enjoying her new life out in Oregon. In fact, this past weekend she was going to attend the famous “Sisters” quilt event. It is so big, it is beyond show, it is an event. Hopefully she is having her son take lots of pictures and I will send them on to Bonnie Bull to post on our website. Geri did ask if anyone from the Guild was attending the show this year so maybe the pictures will inspire some of us to go next year.

My “Kept in Stitches” bee will be going to the VA Retirement Center out in Salem in August. Last year, we donated bed size blankets to the vets and had a wonderful visit with the folks who received them. We asked the staff if they would like more and they told us that they do have a need for the smaller wheelchair blankets.

Sandra Ferguson showed us an easy way to make lovely, scrappy, quilt-as-you-go lap quilts and we will be taking them on August 7. Once again, we hope to have some nice visits with our veteran recipients. Our mission now is to stay healthy so we don't bring them any unwanted germs from our summer company—the grandkids or young ones. The volunteer coordinator said that illness, either in the facility or our group is the only thing that would delay a visit.

WEATHER CANCELLATIONS

Notice of guild meeting cancellations due to bad weather will be posted on the WSLs web site: <http://www.wsls.com>. Click on “Weather”/“Closings.” A link to the WSLs web site can be found at the bottom of the HOME page on our web site.

For further information or questions, please contact the Guild President or the Program Chair-Person (VP). Their contact information is listed in the newsletter under the current officers.

If your bee hasn't made an in person visit to our wonderful veteran's hospital in Salem, ask me for the contact information, we all benefit from the contact with our greatest generation.

Looking forward to the class on Monday, July 21 and the guild meeting on Tuesday—

Workshop Guidelines

Workshops are special opportunities for a small group of people (usually only 20) to have instruction from a guest teacher. Please follow these guidelines when signing up for a workshop.

- Sign-up will begin at 12:30 p.m. at the guild meeting in the month announced for the workshop sign-up.
- Only people who have signed-up AND paid can attend the workshop. You are not considered "signed-up" until you pay your money!
- If you are unable to attend the guild meeting at which the sign-up occurs, have a friend sign you up and pay your money. We will NOT be taking phone sign-ups before this time. Please don't ask us to break this rule.
- Once the workshop is filled, a waiting list will be formed. If someone drops out of the class, the next person on the waiting list will be called. Please do not by-pass the waiting list by selling your spot to a friend. It is not fair to those who have been put on the waiting list.
- Once you are on the list, and find you will be unable to attend, you will not get a refund unless someone is found to take your place. Please contact Becky Linkous and Denise Pilversack as soon as you know you can't come and the next person on the waiting list will be called. If there is no one on the waiting list, you may then find your own replacement.
