Patches from the President . . .

Susan Palmer

Hello Ladies....

I am back from a semi disastrous trip to FL and AL . . . it began with a major mechanical problem with our RV, and ended with a lovely time in Mobile AL. I have never been to Mardi Gras, but I have been to New Orleans and now Mobile. If I had the chance to visit during Mardi Gras, it would be Mobile hands down. It is a lovely old city, and the parade is very family oriented and the people are so very friendly. I toured the Mardi Gras Museum there, and have a few books if you care to see how spectacular the capes are . . . fabric art at its finest.

We got a call from the General Store, our local Kroger butcher was offering his late mom's quilt "stuff" for charitable purposes. After visiting with him, I called in my Bee, Kept in Stitches, to help him bag and catalog the supplies which will be available to anyone who needs to complete any charity project . . . more on that at our meeting on Tuesday. I am always so humbled to realize that our neighbors are aware of the good we do in our community . . . thank all of you for giving so generously of your time, talent, and finances.

LAKE QUILTERS' GUILD

February 1994 Membership in the Guild was growing at every meeting and there were not enough chairs in the Lewis Gale Clinic Conference room (some members brought their own) to seat members and guests. In addition to preparing for the first Lake Quilters' Quilt Show, the members were looking for a meeting location with more space at a reasonable price.

May 1994 The Quilt Show Workers Schedule was published in the newsletter. It set a pattern that is still used every other year for our current quilt shows: Thursday – Set-Up, Friday – Hostesses, Saturday – Hostesses, Take-Down, and Clean-Up.

June 3 & 4, 1994 The first Lake Quilters Guild Quilt Show was held at Bethlehem United Methodist Church, Moneta, Virginia. In summing up the guild's success, Ginny Watson, Betty Hatfield's Co-Chair, wrote in the newsletter that in her past fifteen years of involvement in quilt shows she had never known a quilt guild to have almost 100% participation! No one said "No", there was no arm twisting. All help was freely given.

One of the highlights of the show for Ginny was the field trip of a Sontag Elementary School teacher and her well-behaved and well-instructed students to the show on Friday morning. Bettie Comer was the liaison between school and guild that made the trip planning possible.

September 1994 The Lake Quilters moved to their new home at Hales Ford Baptist Church on Route 122, near Booker T. Washington. They would use the original white wood frame section of the church. The meeting day and time remained the same – 4th Tuesday at 1:00. The only draw-back was the church's stipulation that nothing be sold at the meetings. The Board is open to suggestions that might allow our outside speakers to "peddle their wares" somewhere when they come for a visit.

At the April 28, 2015 meeting, please take a few minutes to stop at the Charity table to view our scrap-book pictures of our first quilt show. We had great publicity leading up to and during the show.
