BARBARA CLINE

LECTURE -1 P.M. "WHERE, WHEN AND WHY OF QUILTING"

Barbara Cline started quilting in her early teens. Her first one was a design she made up herself, she has had over 30 years of experience in quilting, teaching classes at a local sewing shop, and creating beautiful quilts and patterns. Barbara worked at the Clothes Line (now called Patchwork Plus) from the 5th grade until she got married and had children. After she stopped working at the fabric store, she was a stay at home mother, piecing quilt tops to sell when she had the time. Barbara currently teaches classes at Patchwork Plus and loves to design and piece wall hangings and quilts from her home in Shenandoah Valley. She also teaches and gives lectures on the national and international level. ## Susan Palmer

Hello Ladies!

Bring quilts on Tuesday, May 26! We have been invited to participate in the Rocky Mount Court Days, on June 13. This a re-enactment of the time when the Circuit Court judge would make his way around the county hearing cases. This is all part of our heritage, and kicks off the two weeks of Mountain Music on the Crooked Road. We have nine bees. I would like each bee to bring in two quilts, so we would have 18 on display. In keeping with the times, the more folksy and utilitarian, the better. They will be in the Old Morris Furniture store. This is a wonderful way to demonstrate our community out reach--we give our bears out, lap robes for nursing home and the VA, and blankets for the womens' shelter. This is just showing our talents in another way.

I know we are busy, busy, busy, but helping out here means just pulling a quilt off a bed or out of a closet. Eloise Vass will have her van handy to transport them, and I will help hang them on June 13, between 8 and 10 a.m. They will be shown from 10 a.m. - 5 p.m. In keeping with this community out reach, I would also like the bees to collect $20 from their members--added to a line item in our budget, this would buy us a bronze sponsorship on the Charity Home Tour in October. I have been in contact with the tour people, and will be visiting a house on May 28 that may be a perfect fit for displaying some of our most artistic quilts.

Please see the article at

<http://smlhomemagazine.com/finally-home>

In October, after touring the home, and before they take their booties off, the folks will be able to pick up our tri-fold-membership application which will have the date of our 2016 Quilt Show on the cover. Good advertising for a show only six months later . . . and if we have volunteers in the home, a way to show who we are.

Your family and friends may know you as a quilter, but a public face is a way to reach others who may have an interest and not know about us. I have volunteered in the past and found it to be a lot of fun and the Home Tour does wonderful things for the charities in the area.

Karen Arends is heading a new committee to sew a second raffle quilt for our 2016 show. There will be a sign up sheet for that project when you check in on Tuesday. In the past, the committee needs about 10-12 folks to cut and sew, then fewer folks as the pieces get bigger. I would think that at the most you would need to participate twice before one or two folks complete the project.

Lots to think about, See you on Tuesday,

Susan

Workshop Guidelines

Workshops are special opportunities for a small group of people (usually only 20) to have instruction from a guest teacher. Please follow these guidelines when signing up for a workshop.

- Sign-up will begin at 12:30 p.m. at the guild meeting in the month announced for the workshop sign-up.
- Only people who have signed-up AND paid can attend the workshop. You are not considered "signed-up" until you pay your money!
- If you are unable to attend the guild meeting at which the sign-up occurs, have a friend sign you up and pay your money. We will NOT be taking phone sign-ups before this time. Please don't ask us to break this rule.
- Once the workshop is filled, a waiting list will be formed. If someone drops out of the class, the next person on the waiting list will be called. Please do not by-pass the waiting list by selling your spot to a friend. It is not fair to those who have been put on the waiting list.
- Once you are on the list, and find you will be unable to attend, you will not get a refund unless someone is found to take your place. Please contact Diana Brown and Kathy Gunderson as soon as you know you can't come and the next person on the waiting list will be called. If there is no one on the waiting list, you may then find your own replacement.

LAKE QUILTERS' GUILD

February 1995 President Alba Papa announced that the guild now had a Sunshine Committee and members should let the committee know if any members or spouse needed encouragement.

Members were urged to participate in National Quilt Day, sponsored by the Star Quilt Guild in Roanoke.

March 1995 Alma Carter spoke to the guild about the formation of neighborhood "quilting bees." They were very successful in northern Virginia where she lived last. The response was fantastic. To join a bee, give Alma a call.

April 1995 Guest speaker at National Quilt Day, Joan Knight, encouraged members to register our own quilts and any antique quilts in the Virginia Quilt Project. (1) It must have been made between 1776 and 1976. (2) The quilt must have been made in Virginia or currently reside in Virginia. Registration forms will be available at guild meetings, or call Lucy Ricardo.

Alma Carter announced that Lake Quilters now had four bees. If members wanted to join a bee, they could call Alma. (That made her the first Bee Keeper!)

Bedford Bee (297) Will meet the 2nd Tuesday of each month at 12 noon to 2 p.m. starting May 9th at Sandra Grey's home. This group will rotate meeting places. Bring a brown bag lunch and a project to work on.

Boones Mill Bee (334) Will meet first and third Mondays of each month, 10 a.m. to noon at the home of Velma Meador starting May 1st.

Goodview Bee (890) Will meet the first Tuesday of each month starting May 2nd, 10 a.m. to noon at the home of Marjane Gascoyne.

Kept in Stitches (721) Will weekly on Tuesdays at 10 a.m. (except 4th Tuesday when the Lake Quilters meet) at the home of Alma Carter.

Stop by the Charity Table to see the 1995 Scrapbook. Time really flies when you are having fun!
