Patches from the President . . .

Susan Palmer

Hello Ladies . . .

The dog days of summer are really getting boring . . . have floated in the cove and turned wrinkled, cleaned out stuff in the house, waiting for the class on Monday, July 27 and a return to normalcy with a guild meeting on Tuesday, July 28.

Hope you are thinking about the Quilt Retreat. Stephanie will be taking reservations on Tuesday. If you have never done a retreat, consider it—tons of fun, nice projects and this one will be in a lovely state park down in North Carolina. I am sure we can also squeeze in a visit or two to a local quilt shop.

Great news . . . Dawn Saunders had her breast cancer surgery on Monday, July 13, came home by Saturday, July 18. I saw her for a little while. She looks great, big smile, ambulatory, and don't be surprised if she comes in briefly on Tuesday. Marnie Brush will still be filling in for at least another month or two, but glad this first step of Dawn's recovery is over.

We will not be showing our quilts on the house tour so all funds collected will be returned at the meeting. Make sure you see me before you leave.

Susan

2015 Charity News

No meeting in June means no intake report from last month. Please stop by the charity table to check out the "new revised" version of our Care Bear and Bag of Hope pattern. We have labels and stamps for your future projects.

We are now ready for Christmas; two big tubs are stuffed with stockings. A big thank you to all who have made cute, whimsical, charming baby quilts. We have so much fun putting a Care Bear or pillow pal with each baby quilt. What smiles they bring to the receiving agencies!

The Friendship Bee has "inherited" a portion of Gloria Thar's stash. Our August bee meeting will be devoted to claiming dibs and sorting the remainder. Gloria is trading Thimbleberry fabric and flannels for more tropical-looking fabric suitable to the Charleston, South Carolina life style. We will be bringing a trunk-full of this stash to the August meeting.

Workshop Guidelines

Workshops are special opportunities for a small group of people (usually only 20) to have instruction from a guest teacher. Please follow these guidelines when signing up for a workshop.

- Sign-up will begin at 12:30 p.m. at the guild meeting in the month announced for the workshop sign-up.
- Only people who have signed-up AND paid can attend the workshop. You are not considered "signed-up" until you pay your money!
- If you are unable to attend the guild meeting at which the sign-up occurs, have a friend sign you up and pay your money. We will NOT be taking phone sign-ups before this time. Please don't ask us to break this rule.
- Once the workshop is filled, a waiting list will be formed. If someone drops out of the class, the next person on the waiting list will be called. Please do not by-pass the waiting list by selling your spot to a friend. It is not fair to those who have been put on the waiting list.
- Once you are on the list, and find you will be unable to attend, you will not get a refund unless someone is found to take your place. Please contact Diana Brown and Kathy Gunderson as soon as you know you can't come and the next person on the waiting list will be called. If there is no one on the waiting list, you may then find your own replacement.
