President's Message

Hi, Ladies!

*NOTE: The November meeting will be on the third Tuesday, November 15th, not on the fourth Tuesday. *NOTE!

Hopefully all of you will take note of the above message.

God bless all the folks in Haiti, Florida, Georgia, North Carolina, and Virginia. Hurricane Matthew certainly caused 100's of deaths and billions of dollars in damage. Anyone wishing to send quilts to these areas, please see me after the meeting.

The registration form for the December 13th Christmas luncheon is an attachment to this newsletter (page 8). Reservations must be made by November 30. And, the cost for the luncheon this year will be $20. per person, including tax and gratuity.

Also attached is a dues renewal form (page 7), which, if submitted by December 31, will include your information in the annual member list.

Since we will not meet again until after the national election on November 8th, I urge each of you to exercise your right to vote. This election may prove to be a turning point in our nation.

It looks like Kay and Bette have a fantastic lineup of teachers for 2017 and I encourage all of you to sign up for as many workshops as possible.

Until next month,
Stephanie

Bette Gove & Kay McCoy

Lake Quilters Guild is extremely honored to have Linda Haun be our guest for two days in October, consisting of 2 completely separate workshops and a lecture. What we will be able to learn from her, while having lots of fun, is priceless.

October 24 – 9 – 3...”Rock That Block – Juicy Lucy”...instructor Linda Haun

This class is full.

October 25 – 9 – noon...”Welcome to Our Pad”...instructor Linda Haun

Still have some room. If you are interested, please sign up prior to October 15. Contact Kay or Bette, their information is below.

This class is offered by popular demand due to the large number of requests by guilds. Everyone loves the “Tottenville Toads” quilt – but it is way too big for a workshop project...SO this is a small version to help you get started! Students will learn basic foundation piecing for the border, Linda’s ONE PIN method of creating New York Beauty blocks and then fusible raw edge machine applique.

A kit ($15) is required: It includes a set of custom acrylic templates for the curves, re-usable foundation piecing stencils, pattern for the water lily and lettering and foundation paper (which stays inside the quilt – WOW) to complete the project.

Members $25...non-members $28...plus the kit, $15, which is paid at the class

October 25...”New York Beauty State of Mind”...lecturer Linda Haun

About Linda: Linda Haun is well known nationally throughout the quilting world. Her classes are fun and empowering! Linda has a way of taking a project that looks complex and breaking it down in such a way that’s it easy to understand. Linda adds her sense of style while at the same time making it a WHOLE LOTTA OF FUN! Her infectious passion for quilting shines through in her classes. Linda is a high energy...low stress instructor. AND she is a Zumba instructor, so you may be quilting and dancing. She is the author of the AWARD WINNING AQS best seller “New York Beauty Diversified”. It was the Gold Medal winner in the 2013 Independent Publishers Living Now Book awards. Her first book was “New York Beauty Simplified”, which received the bronze medal. Linda has two books in her newest series – “Rock That Quilt Block”, with AQS Publishing. Her next book, released a July 2016 is called “Quilt Match Up – Cash vs Stash”. Linda’s list of accomplishments goes on and on. You will learn much more about her when you take her classes and attend her lecture.

(PLEASE NOTE NOVEMBER DATE CHANGE!)

November 15... Sandy Miller is going to present a trunk show for our November 15 meeting. Sandy began sewing in High School by making a shirtdress and getting an A. She began quilting 9-10 years ago when she took classes from Margaret Herndon. Margaret awoke a spark in Sandy with quilting. She loves playing with fabric, their colors and creating art with them through her quilts. About 4 years ago, Sandy was bitten by the paper piecing bug. She especially loves the Judy Neidemeyer patterns because they are so precise. . All of you who have shopped at the fabric shop in the General Store have probably met Sandy. When it comes to picking and blending colors, she is the person to ask for. Come see her array of beautiful quilts in November. (programs/workshops continued on page 3)

In October 2016 we will be ready for you to sign up for March 2017.

March 27, 2017...9AM -2PM...Painting Your Own Outdoor Quilt Block...instructor Suzi Parron
$40 for members includes 99% of your supplies! What a deal!

March 28, 2017...topic TBD...lecturer Suzi Parron

Suzi Parron is a quilter, a folk art collector, and an avid kayaker. A native of Florida, Suzi has no stationary home, traveling by RV with her husband, Glen. She speaks to quilters and civic groups as she roams across the country. She has written two books.

Barn Quilts and the American Quilt Trail Movement By Suzi Parron and Donna Sue Groves. With more than eighty full-color photographs, Parron documents a movement that combines rural economic development with an American folk art phenomenon.

Following the Barn Quilt Trail By Suzi Parron

Foreword by Donna Sue Groves

The follow-up to 2012's Barn Quilts and the American Quilt Trail Movement brings readers along with Suzi Parron, her husband, Glen, their dog Gracie, and their converted van Ruby as they leave the stationary life behind. With no permanent home, Suzi and Glen follow the barn quilt trail full time. Suzi collects the stories behind these painted quilt squares that, since the movement began in Ohio in 2001, have appeared on barns in forty-eight states and in two provinces.

Workshop Guidelines 2016

Workshops are special opportunities for a small group of quilters (generally between 10 to 20) to learn new patterns and new techniques, to develop deeper threads of friendship and to obtain valued instruction from the guest speaker.

Please follow these guidelines when signing up for a workshop.

- Sign up will begin at the monthly guild meeting three or more months prior to the workshop.
- Three months or more prior to the workshop, the sign up will be offered to our guild members. Two months prior, if the workshop is not filled, the workshop will be opened to other guilds and to the general public at an additional fee. One month prior to the workshop, if not filled, the workshop will be cancelled and payments returned.
- Only people who have signed up AND paid can attend the workshop. You are not considered signed up until your payment is received.
- Once the workshop is filled, a "waiting" sign-up sheet will be made available. If someone drops out of the class, the next person on the waiting list will be called. If you need to cancel, please do not find a replacement unless there is no one waiting.
- Once you have signed up for a workshop and you find you are unable to attend, you will not receive a refund unless your spot is filled. Please contact Bette Gove and/or Kay McCoy as soon as you know you can't come and if applicable, the next person on the waiting list will be contacted. If there is no one on the waiting list, you may find your own replacement. Please advise Bette and/or Kay who this person is and their contact information.

At 2:45 pm, a motion was made, and seconded to adjourn the meeting.

September Charity Report

Two walker bags, two pillow pals, and twelve quilts; what generosity! The twelve quilts from Denise, Fran, Joyce and Sandra were so lovely and charming. It is quilts like these that prompted the daughter-in-law of one of our hospice recipients to donate fabric to us with her best wishes as we gift hospice patients with more beautiful quilts. She stressed how much her mother-in-law enjoyed her quilt and that it made her feel special. Check out our table for donated fabric, polyfil batting for pillow pals, and more quilt kits. The charming baby quilts from your Grandma stashes are just adorable! Thank you so much.
