President's Message

Hello Quilters!

I hope many of you are working on your Challenge project. I wish I had had time to do one, but I'm so looking forward to seeing yours.

The "Virginia Register" arrived at my house today. It is filled with notices about special events and quilt shop specials for December. Be sure to pick one up at the welcoming table at the November meeting.

Remember that Erich Faber will be at the November meeting on November 13th to answer our questions on our tax status before we vote. Only those present at the meeting can vote, so be sure to attend!

The December luncheon will be December 4 at Trinity Ecumenical Parish at 12:00.

Tues., Nov. 13, 1-3 pm: – IQG Annual Business Meeting.

Tues., Dec. 4, Noon: – Annual Holiday Luncheon, at Trinity Ecumenical Church

We are extremely happy to announce that Veronica Church has volunteered to be one of the new 2019 Programs Co-VPs. Her ideas and enthusiasm for this job are certain to make for a fun and educational year, and she is sure to take things to a whole new level!

However, Veronica needs ONEMOREVOLUNTEER to be her Co-Programs VP to share the responsibilities of this very important job. The core function of the Guild is its Programs, and this is not a one-person job. If you are computer literate and would like to lend your talent and enthusiasm to help the Guild in 2019, then PLEASE call Mary Hamlin TODAY and let her know of your interest. You will receive guidance and training from both Shannan and Cecily-Sue.

An additional big THANK YOU to Bonnie Bull for the tremendous job she does on the Guild's website. She takes the Programs and Workshops information from each month's newsletter and posts it online, as well as the supply lists for each Workshop. She makes our Guild look very organized and professional with the incredible website she has created and manages for us. Please remember to thank her for her wonderful work.

FYI:

In 2018, we began giving out feedback sheets to each Participant at every Workshop. Believing in: “that which is measured can be improved,” the following questions were asked:

On a scale of 1-5, with 1 being the lowest and 5 being the highest, please rate your experience:

- ◆ Overall, did you enjoy this Workshop and feel like it was a valuable use of your time?
1 2 3 4 5
- ◆ How would you rate the instructor?
1 2 3 4 5
- ◆ Did you learn something new?
1 2 3 4 5
- ◆ Did you make any new acquaintances with other Guild members?
1 2 3 4 5

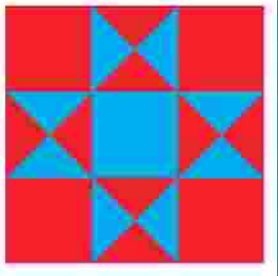

Additional comments/suggestions/constructive criticisms regarding this Workshop, the Instructor, overall set up and management of the time and space, or ways we might improve things?

The responses we received were very honest and overwhelmingly positive. The suggestions for improvements were implemented (if possible), and constructive criticisms regarding the instructors (if any) were passed along. Overall, Participants were extremely enthusiastic about all of the skills and techniques they learned, projects they did, and new friends they made

A heartfelt thanks to each of you who participated in the Guild's Programs and Workshops during 2018. Your support and encouragement have meant so much to both of us, and the best part for us was making new friendships and getting to know some of you more.

Blessings for 2019,

Cecily-Sue and Shannan

2018 Barn Quilt Challenge

Less than a month until the final event! Congratulations to Colleen Filbey who won the monthly participant prize for the challenge. Thank you to Batiks Etc., Threads Run Thru It and The General Store for contributing the prize.

Speaking of prizes, as a reminder and to get you motivated to finish your challenge, a special thanks to the following sponsors who donated our prizes:

1st place: $100 Quilted Expressions in Lynchburg

2nd place: $50 Patchwork Plus in Dayton

3rd place: $35 Threads Run Thru It in Rustburg

4th place: $20 Boones Country Store in Boones Mill

Any unclaimed monthly drawing prizes will be used for honorable mention and/or the "show only" category.

If you have any questions about this year's challenge, please contact Sue Wilson at suefredwilson@icloud.com.

MEMBERSHIP REPORT

Our membership currently stands at 157 members. 2019 dues will be due January, so our dues will match the fiscal year's income. The renewal form will be sent out by email and will also be posted on the website. We are all looking forward to another stellar year of workshops and programs.

Where are the Bears

CHARITY REPORT

The bears you made at the February Sew-In went to children in Bedford and Franklin County Hospitals' ERs and Pediatric departments. Baby quilts with bears went to the Perinatal Center. Bibs went to nursing homes. Children's quilts (my grands and great-grands call them nap quilts) with fleece bears went to Shelters in both counties. Lap or wheelchair-sized quilts, Pillow Pals, Fidget (sensory) quilts have gone to Bedford Nursing Home & Bedford and Franklin County Hospices. Walker and wheelchair bags have gone to nursing homes. Larger Lap quilts/ twin quilts with a pillow pal in a pillowcase are going to CASA, young people who are "aging out" at the end of the year. Bed quilts w/ pillowcases go to the domestic violence shelters in both counties. Christmas stockings go to the 220 pre-school tots served by STEP.

Your donations of fabric and notions have been shared at our guild meetings, with the left-overs stored away in crates for February's Sew-In and Bear-stuffing. Sensory and fidget quilts are in demand, as well as chemo caps. We will recycle your stash reduction into 2019's charity donations. Thank you, thank you to the person who donated YARDS of solid blue and blue/white striped sheeting. Look for our crate of pillow case kits with an easy pattern in 2019. Betty Huffman

News from the Beehive.....

We have a "new bee" in the hive! The Worker Bee was formed this month. The name reflects the hope that this Bee will meet the needs of quilters who are still working as well as what they can do to help their community. They will be meeting on the second Sunday of the month from 2-5 pm at the Patmos United Methodist Church. As a starting point, their aim is to learn from each other, work for charities (bears, fidget blankets, Project Linus, etc.) as well as have traditional sessions working on individual projects, learning new techniques, sharing tips, books and expertise. Field trips will also be in the mix! Sounds like it is going to be an active and fun group! If you are interested, please contact Jan Emerick-Brothers at scooter_brandy@hotmail.com. (Please note that is an underscore in her email address between scooter and brandy)

New Basic Quilting Class

A new class will begin in January, taking place during the block of the Month time, noon to 12:45. We will cover tools, color, fabric, rotary cutting, accurate seaming, pressing, piecing, half square triangles, flying geese and many other topics.

If you are a beginner or just want to hone your skills, sign up to express your interest with Sue Whitney at the sign in table. We will limit the enrollment, so we can give you individual attention. Those who sign up early will get first choice of attending.

Currently we plan six sessions, but we can plan more if the need arises to cover putting together your quilt top, borders, preparing for quilting and binding. We plan to charge approximately $10 (one time charge) to cover the costs of copying handouts.

Sandra Ferguson and other quilters.

Weather Cancellations

The cancellation policy for LQG meetings is: If either Bedford or Franklin County Schools are canceled then the LQG meeting is canceled. In addition, notice of guild meeting cancellations due to bad weather will be posted on the WDBJ7 website: http:// www.wdbj7.com. Click on Weather/ Closings. A link to this website can be found at the bottom of the Homepage of our website. For further information or questions, please contact the LQG president or the VP of Programs.
