President's Message

Hello from Florida!

I have been working on various small projects here in Florida and have met great quilting ladies here. The Seam Shop in Key West has beautiful material and I drool whenever I go there. I hope you ladies are working on beautiful projects to show at our Quilt Show in April. I am really looking forward to seeing all the wonderful quilts.

The February meeting is coming up and should be a fun day (weather permitting) to make many charity teddy bears. It's always a fun time to get together all day for sewing with our friends and making new friends as we cut, sew, stuff, and sew some more to finish those cute bears, knowing we are spreading joy to children at a tough time for them. Be sure to go and help with this project if you are able. Remember to sit with someone you don't know at that meeting and at our regular meetings and make a few new friends. We want to make all our new members feel welcome and we always grow from the experience!

I'll see you in March. Until then, keep on sewing!

Mary Hamlin, President.

IQG Workshops are educational and fun opportunities for small groups of quilters (generally between 15-25) to obtain valued instruction from guest Presenters and learn new patterns, techniques, shortcuts and design elements, as well as develop deeper threads of friendship with other Guild members. For your information, please refer to the following Workshop Guidelines:

- Three or more months prior to the Workshop, signups will begin at the regular monthly meeting.
- Two months prior to the Workshop, if it is not filled, signups will be offered to other guilds and the general public at an additional fee.
- One month prior to the Workshop, if not filled, it will be cancelled and payments returned.
- Only people who have signed up AND paid can attend the Workshop. You are not considered signed up until your payment is received.
- When the Workshop is filled, a "Waiting List" sign-up sheet will be made available. If someone drops out, the next person on the Waiting List will be called. ( If you need to cancel, please DO NOT find a replacement unless there is no one waiting.)
- Once you have signed up for a Workshop and you find you are unable to attend, you WILL NOT receive a refund unless your spot is filled.

Please contact Shannan Maggied or Cecily-Sue Roth as soon as you know you cannot attend a Workshop you have signed up and paid for. Registration forms are available on line, On page 11 of this newsletter, or at the guild meetings. Please remember they are due by March 1st. Please dont wait until the last minute. We hope you have been busy selling your raffle tickets for our two beautiful quilts. Please turn in any money at the guild meeting. Anyone would love to win either of our quilts!

Dont forget to put out our brochures/flyers in businesses around the area. If you need more see Joyce Noell, or print out one of the flyers sent as a separate attachment with this months Newsletter. The more we advertise the more people will come.

Alice Vreeland will still have all her volunteer sign up sheets ready for you to sign up. Remember, we need everyone to help, even just for one hour, to make our show a success.

Katherine Lewis is still accepting door prizes. Please check your sewing room for an item that maybe you thought you would love but dont use anymore. We want to have lots of door prizes for our patrons.

The committee is working hard to get everything ready. Please help them by participating in whatever way you can! Happy Quilting.

DID YOU KNOW

During the time of our American Civil War, other conflicts were raging throughout the world, and it has come to light that many of these foreign soldiers used their uniforms (made of felted wool) to create absolutely exquisite quilts!

Australian Annette Gero has amassed quite a collection of these quilts and has already had a showing at the American Folk Art Museum in New York City, with another exhibition scheduled at the International Quilt Study Center and Museum, University of Lincoln-Nebraska from May 25 to September 16, 2018.

Highlights of this exhibition can be found on Youtube. Search for "War and Pieced, The Annette Gero Collection of Quilts from Military Fabrics" for an incredible view of the visual virtuosity of these quilts. Many have thousands of pieces no more than one-inch square and use an early technique of pictorial inlaid or intarsia quilting.

Bears, bags, bibs and more bears, oh my! The fun begins at 9am February 27th. Bring your lunch and (only if you wish to sew up some bears' butts) your favorite hand sewing needle and snips.
